

MOST ELUSIVE VIRGINIA PINS

Recently the Lions International Trading Pin Club, (LITPC), completed a program wherein they asked their members to identify the most difficult MD pins to obtain. This program was hugely successful and resulted in a listing of those hard to get pins that have everyone searching for them. One of the “hot topics”, when Virginia Pin Traders get together, is which are the hardest Virginia pins to find.

At the latest meeting of the Virginia Pin Trades Board of Directors, President Chet Kramer, after discussion by the Board, appointed a committee to initiate this program concerning Virginia pins. In that respect, we are asking all members of the Pin Traders Club of Virginia to participate by identifying those pins that they believe are the most difficult find. We are asking each of you to list in the order you deem most difficult the following:

- Virginia Multiple District and Special Issue Pins. Please list your Top 10.
- Virginia District Pins. Please list your Top 5.
- Virginia Club Pins. Please list your Top 10.
- Virginia Pin Trader Club (PTCV) Pins. Please list your Top 5.
- Virginia Personal Pins. Please list your Top 5.

You can list a set of pins as one entry, or an individual pin from a set as one entry. For example if it is your opinion, say, that the Presidential set should be listed then it could be one of the ten entries for the MD pins. If on the other hand you feel that the George Washington Pin in that set is the most difficult and the others are not, then you could list that pin as a single entry.

Entries should be submitted to:

Lion Mary Lou Newman by email at mlnewman0@verizon.net or by snail mail to her home address at 3009 Heritage Landing Road, Williamsburg VA 23185.

Deadline for all submissions is 31 October 2018.

Hopefully, we will be able to furnish the results at our annual swap in November.

Every participant will receive a participation pin shown below. This pin will only be available to those who submit their entries.
